

BREYER STATE UNIVERSITY

"Eagle's Nest"

Breyer State University's Online Student News Letter

What's New at Breyer State University:

Greetings Student Body: Welcome again to this edition of the Eagle's Nest, Breyer State University's very own online News Letter to our students, faculty and alumni.

Announcements:

The Programming Department would like us to inform the student body that they are currently testing several online classroom programs to use as our new online classroom. During this time our online exams will be offline. In order to take your exams you will need to request the exam from your professor and they will send the exams via e-mail. You will then submit your answers via e-mail back to the professor. Please let us know your feedback, you can reach us at newsletter@breyerstate.com or give us a call at 310-242-5964.

Social Media:

More exciting news, now you can reach us on your favorite Social Media Network. Please follow the links below.

Facebook

Linked In

Myspace

Twitter

Professor Spotlight: Jackie Sexson, JD

Jackie Sexson is the Executive Director of The Sexson Group, a legal/human resources consulting and training firm. As a practicing attorney, she has extensive knowledge and experience in the employment and labor law area. She has over 15 years experience with Fortune 500 companies and small start-up companies. She has held director and executive level positions with these companies and has worked as an independent consultant with many others. She has held positions of Director of Legal and Human Resources and Assistant General Counsel for large corporations and government entities. She has a vast knowledge of the private sector, the public sector and the education arena.

As an educator, she has taught numerous courses in management, law, criminal justice, human resources and organizational theory at several institutions including Breyer State University, DeVry University, Northcentral University, Troy University and University of Phoenix. She has taught for over 12 years and is a skilled instructor in the online environment. Also, she has been a presenter/speaker at numerous conferences on various legal and human resources topics. She also speaks on special topics related to management areas such as Ethical Leadership.

Jackie holds a law degree, Masters in Business Administration with a concentration in management and currently is certified as a Senior Professional in Human Resources by the Society for Human Resources Management. She is a current member of the Alabama State Bar Association (member of the Labor/Employment Law Section); member of the American Bar Association (member of the Employment and Labor Law Section); member of the Society for Human Resources Management; and member of a local Kiwanis club. In her spare time, Jackie enjoys an abundance of outdoor activities as well as writing a novel.

Program of the Week: Bachelor of Fine Arts in Art History

Our online distance education Fine Arts degree program offers students the opportunity to study a comprehensive curriculum in two fields cultures and eras of Art History and modern Interior Design.

In our Art History concentration; a culture's nature is best revealed by its art. Our program will allow students to into the past of different cultures through out our history. The wide variety of cultures studied reach from Asian art to medieval European art. Student will study the many different types of art, the unique qualities they each possess, and the contributions they made in history.

Several career fields this degree will prepare you for are:

- * Art Appraiser
- * Arts Administrator
- * Art Museum Curator
- * Designing
- * Art Historian

Student Payment Plan:

Breyer State University is now offering our students and applicants a new payment plan option. This plan is available to everyone who is attending Breyer State University, regardless of your degree program. This plan gives all of our students a way to manage their tuition with easy monthly payments and start their courses at the same time. Now students can start with a payment as little as $100 per month for bachelor level. Some of the benefits include:

- * Zero Percent Interest (interest free) for your entire degree program.
- * Allows student to start multiple courses.
- * Allows students to make low monthly payments.
- * Any student, old or new, can join sign up for this plan.
- * For more details please follow this link:

<http://www.breyerstate.com/paymentplanform.htm>

Enroll for your Next Course:

You can enroll now for your next course by following the links below:

- 1) Making an application.
- 2) Registering for a course,
- 3) Making a payment for your tuition.

Bi-Monthly Student News Letter:

Design a header picture to put at the top of the letter.

Sections:

Introduction/Overview – In this section a general overview of what is included will be lists and discussed.

What's new at Breyer State – We can update our students on what is going on in this section.

Getting to Know your Professors – Every week we could include information about a different professor. I was thinking of having the journalism students conduct an interview for extra credit.

Student Success Stories – In this section we can include pass graduates' success stories.

Student Spotlight – This section can alternate with Success Stories. We can show how students are using their education from Breyer State to help them achieve success in their fields while they are currently studying with Breyer.

Other ideas – have journalism students write the articles and conduct the interviews with the professors and faculty members. Also have them conduct interviews with the graduates as well.

Create an e-mail address – We will need a separate e-mail address for the news letter. eaglesnest@breyerstate.com might work or it can be what ever we decide on.